

IACP/LAURA AND JOHN ARNOLD FOUNDATION LEADERSHIP IN LAW ENFORCEMENT RESEARCH AWARD

Introduction

The IACP/Laura and John Arnold Foundation Leadership in Law Enforcement Research Award recognizes law enforcement agencies that demonstrate excellence in conducting and using research to improve police operations and public safety. The goal of this award is to promote the establishment of effective partnerships among law enforcement agencies and researchers.

All agencies are eligible if they have:

1. Partnered with an external researcher and/or a research organization and,
2. Completed a research effort in which they addressed an issue determined by agency leadership and used by the agency to improve policies and/or practices.

General Information

Please complete the contact information fields below. We will first ask for the nominee's information, including any partner organizations. We will then ask for your (nominator's) information. If there are more than three partners, please attach the additional information to your application.
