

IACP/BODYWORN BY UTILITY LEADERSHIP IN VOLUNTEER POLICE SERVICE PROGRAMS AWARD

Introduction

The IACP/BodyWorn by Utility Leadership in Volunteer Police Service Programs Award recognizes volunteer programs that demonstrate innovative, effective practices for augmenting sworn or civilian staff and/or improving service delivery to their communities. Established in 2003, the goal of the award program is to recognize the value that volunteers provide to state and local law enforcement and to institutionalize the theories and practices of the national Volunteers in Police Service (VIPS) Program. This award promotes leadership among law enforcement agencies to develop and implement creative and effective law enforcement volunteer programs.

Eligible agencies include law enforcement agencies that have developed, implemented, and sustained creative and effective law enforcement volunteer programs.
