

WADE CARPENTER
Vice President At-Large
International Association of Chiefs of Police

Chief Carpenter currently serves as the Chief of Police of Park City, UT and has been in law enforcement for over 28 years, 20 of those as chief. He currently sits on the IACP Executive Board, the Financial Review Committee and the IACP Patrol and Tactical Operations committee. He is the immediate past president of the Utah Chiefs of Police Association.

Chief Carpenter's experience, law enforcement involvement, and accomplishments include: being the two term-president of the Utah Chiefs of Police Association, the Vice Chairman of the Utah Peace Officer Standards and Training Council, Chair of the Utah State Intelligence Analysis Center and supervising logistics for the Sundance Film festival and the annual FIS Freestyle Ski World Cup. He sits on the boards for the Utah Special Olympics, the Utah 1033 Fallen Officer Foundation, and the FBI Joint Terrorism Task Force. Chief Carpenter is also the co-founder of Leaders for Life, an anti-bullying program.