

DWIGHT HENNINGER
Fourth Vice President
International Association of Chiefs of Police

Chief Dwight Henninger has been a member of the IACP Executive Committee for five years, served as the Chair of the Environmental Crimes Committee, and as a member of the Financial Review and Homeland Security Committees.

Chief Henninger has served as chief in Vail, Colorado since 2002. Leading a 63-person organization, he serves a population of over two million domestic and international visitors annually. In 2010, Chief Henninger was congressionally appointed to serve on the Local, State, Tribal and Federal Preparedness Task Force - a force directed by the Federal Emergency Management Agency. He is a graduate of the FBI National Academy Session #196, PERF's Senior Management Institute for Police, and the California POST Command College.

Chief Henninger received Masters Degrees from UC, Irvine in Business and Public Administration and from San Diego State University in Leadership.