

SARAH HORN
Assistant Director, Outreach
International Association of Chiefs of Police

Sarah Horn is the Assistant Director of Outreach at the International Association of Chiefs of Police and oversees the annual conference, Police Chief magazine, and the Law Enforcement Policy Center.

Prior to moving to the Outreach Team, Ms. Horn managed the programmatic development of the association's traffic safety efforts and worked on several national-scope projects in partnership with the U.S. Department of Transportation, National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration, and the Federal Highway Administration.

Before joining IACP, she worked for the National Crime Prevention Council (NCPC) as the marketing manager. While at NCPC, Ms. Horn worked to increase awareness of the organization's products and services, assisted in creating branding standards and guidelines, and provided media relations support. Previous to her work at NCPC, Ms. Horn worked for the National Association of Broadcasters (NAB) where she managed public awareness campaigns, such as the Friend's Don't Let Friends Drive Drunk campaign, and implemented related outreach campaigns.

She holds a BA in history from Villanova University.
