

KIM KOHLHEPP
Assistant Director, Programs
International Association of Chiefs of Police

Kim Kohlhepp serves as Assistant Director of IACP's Programs Team, with a portfolio consisting of grant-funded projects covering a wide variety of issues including technology, juvenile justice, highway safety, human trafficking, violence against women, reducing adult incarceration, Project Safe Neighborhoods, the Center for Research and Policy, and many more.

Mr. Kohlhepp previously served as Assistant Director of IACP's Training and Professional Services Directorate, encompassing domestic and international training, management studies, and testing. In addition, he served many years managing IACP's Center for Testing Services, and continues to be actively involved in executive searches for police chiefs, as well as the design and administration of police promotional processes. He is coordinator of the IACP Psychological Services and Police Physicians Sections and manages IACP's award-winning www.DiscoverPolicing.org career center.

Mr. Kohlhepp has earned a Master of Arts degree in industrial/organizational psychology at the University of Nebraska at Omaha, where he previously served as an instructor.