

In partnership with:

ID Safety Materials Feedback

National Strategy to Prevent and Respond to Identity Crime

Dear Law Enforcement Colleague:

Thank you for ordering materials developed by the ID Crime project sponsored by the Bank of America and administered by the IACP. We ask that you please take several minutes to complete this form and forward it via fax to 703.684.5728. If you are using Acrobat® Professional to fill out this form, you can save this file and e-mail it to idsafety@theiacp.org. Your responses will assist us in gathering data on how the products were distributed in your communities, and your candid assessments and suggestions will enable us to improve the documents' content, accuracy, credibility and value to future audiences.

Note: Use your Tab key to move through each field on this form.

Provide all information requested below. (please type or print).

First/Last Name:

Rank/Position/Title:

Agency/State:

Contact Information: Ph: E-mail:

Department Size: Number Sworn Personnel Number Civilian Personnel

Our agency ordered the following materials (please indicate the number of copies you ordered):

..... Defending America Against Identity Crime: Toolkit for Police Executives.

..... Keep Your Good Name: Prevention Toolkit (Red).

..... Get Back Your Good Name: Recovery Toolkit (Blue).

..... CD-ROM with downloadable Toolkits and relevant ID crime resources and links (available in April 2008).

Materials were distributed as follows (please list meetings, events, etc. where you disseminated materials):

.....

Please evaluate the materials using a 5-point scale, where 5 = excellent and 1 = poor.

	5	4	3	2	1
1. The documents are reader-friendly and comprehensive.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
2. The documents provide enough information to prevent, investigate and mitigate effects of ID crime.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
3. Toolkit for Police Executives is credible within law enforcement.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
4. Prevention and Recovery Toolkits are useful to the community members in general and to victims of ID crime in particular.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
5. I would recommend ordering and disseminating the Toolkits to my law enforcement colleagues and peers.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

Comments and suggestions for improvement:

.....

I learned about the materials through:

IACP Web site www.idsafety.org from project stakeholder presentations from my peers

other (please specify)