Clayton J. Hall Memorial Award:

This special award honors the memory of Clayton J. Hall, former Director, Police Traffic Services, for the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration of the USDOT. Mr. Hall was a highway safety leader who helped develop the National Law Enforcement Challenge (formerly known as the Chief's Challenge) concept and many other innovative traffic safety programs during his life. The Clayton J. Hall Memorial Award is presented annually to the law enforcement agency that best represents what a comprehensive traffic safety program should be. All agencies entered in the Law Enforcement Challenge are considered for this award.

2005 Clayton J. Hall Memorial Award Winner:

Park Ridge, IL Police Department
