

PAUL CELL
President
International Association of Chiefs of Police

Chief Paul Cell began his law enforcement career in 1980 and has served as the chief of police at the Montclair State University Police Department in New Jersey since 2001. Chief Cell is a member and past president of the New Jersey State Association of Chiefs of Police (NJSACOP) and chairman of the New Jersey Police Chiefs Foundation. He continues to serve as the NJSACOP International Executive Law Enforcement Liaison and chair of the Critical Incident Response Committee. In 2013, Chief Cell was appointed as an Executive Committee Member of the IACP.

Chief Cell is a graduate of the FBI National Academy, FBI LEEDS, and the IACP National Law Enforcement Leadership and Institute on Violence Against Women.

He has also worked and trained internationally through programs with the South African Police Services, the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, the Ontario Police Chiefs, and at the International College of Policing at Bramshill, England.

Chief Cell is a co-author and editor of the textbook Creating Comprehensive Campus Sexual Assault Response Teams, and he serves on the working groups of the New Jersey Governor's Advisory Council Against Sexual Violence and the New Jersey Homeland Security Emergency Services. In addition, he was appointed to the advisory boards for the Clery Center and the Civic Research Institute Quarterly Review.
