Introduction
The IACP Leadership in Crime Prevention Award recognizes innovative, data-driven, low-cost and high-impact crime prevention programs. Programs recognized for this award should exemplify effective crime reduction strategies and specific measures of success. Agencies must demonstrate how their crime prevention program builds community trust and increases community engagement.

Single law enforcement agencies of any size, as well as multi-agency collaborations, are eligible for this award. This award is also open to law enforcement agencies and their public/private community partner(s) (e.g., local businesses, schools, mental health providers).

Submission Tasks:
- Contacts (Nominee, Point of Contact, Head of Agency, Nominator)
- Head of Agency Acknowledgement Letter
- Supplemental Materials (optional)
