

IACP LEADERSHIP IN HUMAN AND CIVIL RIGHTS AWARD

The IACP Leadership in Human Civil Rights Award recognizes individuals and agencies who have demonstrated leadership in protecting fundamental rights. This award showcases the achievements of agencies and individuals in protecting and promoting human and civil rights to enhance public trust and maintain cooperation and partnerships with communities.

Must be a law enforcement agency, officers, or individuals partnering with a law enforcement agency is eligible for this award.

Categories

- Individual
- Agency

Submission Tasks

- Contacts (Nominee, Point of Contact, Head of Agency, Nominator)
- Head of Agency Acknowledgement Letter
- Supplemental Materials (optional)

Questions

1. Explain why this individual or agency should be selected for this award. Describe the history, impact, and innovation that make the nomination unique.
2. What were the outcomes or results? If applicable, include evidence of demonstrated success.
3. How does this submission exemplify leadership and how can others benefit from the lessons learned or best practices?
4. How did the program or individual endeavors contribute to the protection and advancement of human and civil rights?
5. What are the benefits to the law enforcement profession? This can include building community trust and involvement, replication by others, and enhancing enforcement and public safety.