

IACP MICHAEL SHANAHAN LEADERSHIP IN PUBLIC/PRIVATE COOPERATION AWARD

The IACP Leadership in Public/Private Cooperation Award, in honor of the late Chief Michael Shanahan, who served the University of Washington Police Department for 24 years before retiring in 1995 and served as the founding chair of the IACP Private Sector Liaison Committee, seeks to recognize outstanding achievement in the development and implementation of public/private cooperation in public safety. The IACP Michael Shanahan Leadership in Public/Private Cooperation Award recognizes partnerships between law enforcement agencies and private industries that have collaborated to build community trust and enhance public safety.

All law enforcement agencies in collaboration with their private partner are eligible to apply.
