

Module 14. Working with People Experiencing Homelessness

Time: 45 minutes

Slides: 9

Purpose: The material presented within this trainer's guide provides a framework for content on people experiencing homelessness. Trainers are encouraged to add content to and/or revise this module to tailor the materials to their local jurisdiction and experiences within their community.

Learning Objectives:

Specific learning objectives will be determined by the content added by local trainers and the primary talking points of guest speakers. Still, upon completing this module, participants should:

1. Be knowledgeable of national and local statistics related to homelessness;
2. Understand the diverse risk factors of homelessness in America; and
3. Identify local resources to support people experiencing homelessness.
