The International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP), works in partnership with the Bureau of Justice Assistance (BJA), and the Office for Victims of Crime (OVC) to provide training and technical assistance to BJA and OVC-funded Enhanced Collaborative Model (ECM) Human Trafficking Task Forces. The IACP has partnered with AEquitas, John Jay College of Criminal Justice at the City University of New York, and other expert consultants to increase the capabilities of the ECM Human Trafficking Task Forces and other communities to combat all forms of human trafficking.

Training

- Classroom Training Courses (upcoming in 2020)
  - Effective Strategies to Investigate and Prosecute Labor Trafficking in the United States
  - Advanced Human Trafficking Investigations
- Online and/or DVD Training
  - Child sex trafficking training for frontline officers
  - Crime of human trafficking roll-call training
  - Human Trafficking in Native American Communities
- Quarterly Webinar Series
  - Trends and tools for law enforcement
  - Prosecuting labor trafficking with civil rights laws
  - Immigration relief
  - Investigating illicit massage businesses
  - Labor trafficking identification
  - Performance measurement
  - Grant management
  - Prosecuting without victim cooperation
  - FBI uniform crime reporting
  - Sustaining Task Force Operations
  - Expanding Partnerships to Combat Human Trafficking
  - Essential Role and Function of Task Force Coordinators
  - More upcoming!

Resources/Tools

- Human trafficking
  - Guide to identification and investigation
  - Identification and investigation roll-call training resources
- Child sex trafficking
  - Guide for law enforcement leaders
  - Toolkit for training frontline officers
- Library of Human Trafficking Training, Tools, and Resources – Compilation of resources on Human Trafficking
- Task Force Connect – online peer-to-peer sharing community exclusively for DOJ-funded ECM Human Trafficking Task Forces

Technical Assistance

The IACP’s team, including staff and consultants, is available to respond to task force law enforcement needs and requests on topics and methods such as:

- Strategies to identify, investigate and prosecute sex and labor trafficking
- Trauma-informed/victim-centered approaches
- Data collection and evaluation best practices
- Protocol development
- Peer-to-peer TTA opportunities
- Support with completion of ECM Task Force deliverables
- Coordinated IACP, BJA, OVC, and OVC TTAC response
- Additional topics available, customized to meet task force needs

Find out more at:
www.theiacp.org/humantrafficking humantrafficking@theiacp.org
1-800-THE-IACP ext. 336