AUXILIARY

Toronto Police Service Auxiliary

Will You Meet The Challenge?

“In Partnership With The Community”

What is the Toronto Police Service Auxiliary Program?

You will be part of a very dedicated and committed team of community volunteers who are trained both in the theoretical and practical applications of policing.

A comprehensive training program, presented by both VR and C.O. Bick College prepares you for your interaction with the police and the community.

If you are a successful candidate in our recruitment process, you will be appointed as an Auxiliary Officer of the Toronto Police Service.

This is an opportunity to interact with Police Officers as well as an opportunity to serve in your community.

Ongoing monthly training will be provided for you to ensure that you are able to assist with many situations.

The Recruitment Process

Applicants must attend in person to undergo a vision test and meet the following basic requirements prior to receiving an interview.

What are the basic requirements?

- Be a Canadian Citizen or a permanent resident of Canada*
